Capturing the Energy Efficiency Opportunity:
Lessons from EDF Climate Corps
September 17, 2010

8:30 - 8:45 Registration and Breakfast (HCA Auditorium)

8:45 – 10:30 Welcome and Keynote: Climate Leaders in Conversation (HCA Auditorium)
- Dan Vermeer, Executive Director, Duke University EDGE Center
- Michael Lamach, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Ingersoll Rand
- Peter Senge, Author, The Fifth Discipline; Founding Chair, Society for Organizational Learning (SoL)

10:45 -12:00 Panel 1: Energy Efficiency Motivation and Identification (Faculty Hall)
- Rick Larrick, Professor of Management, Fuqua School of Business, Duke University
- John Schinter, Executive Director of Energy, AT&T
- David Walker, Director of Environmental Sustainability, PepsiCo

12:00 - 1:00 Lunch Plenary (Faculty Hall)
- Rachel Hinchliffe, Project Manager, Environmental Defense Fund
- Bill Chameides, Dean, Nicholas School of the Environment, Duke University

1:15 - 2:30 Panel 2: Energy Efficiency Financing (Faculty Hall)
- David Robinson, Professor of Finance, Fuqua School of Business, Duke University
- Paul Baier, Vice President of Sustainability Consulting, Groom Energy
- Jeremy Lemieux, Senior Auditor, EHS PE, Diversey
- Brian Weldy, Vice President of Engineering and Facility Services, Hospital Corporation of America (HCA)

2:45 - 4:00 Panel 3: Energy Efficiency Implementation and Benchmarking (Faculty Hall)
- Gale Boyd, Director of the Triangle Research Data Center, Senior Research Scholar, Duke University
- Judd Eder, MBA Candidate, University of Minnesota and Climate Corps Fellow, Eaton Corporation
- Daniel Gisser, Sustainability Manager, Eaton Corporation
- John Queenan, Head of Environment and Sustainability Property, RBS Citizens Bank

4:15 – 6:00 Closing Remarks and Reception (Thomas Center)
- Gary Gereffi, Director of the Center on Globalization, Governance, and Competitiveness, Duke University