During the last three years, over 80 companies and select MBA fellows have worked in dozens of leading companies through Environmental Defense Fund’s Climate Corps program, identifying opportunities for energy efficiency that save money and reduce greenhouse emissions. The insights generated through the Climate Corps experience provide a rich learning opportunity for all companies and organizations looking to unlock the financial and environmental benefits of energy efficiency.

RSVP
Please let us know who will be representing your organization by July 30th.

A block of double rooms has been reserved for 9/16 at the R. David Thomas Executive Conference Center adjacent to the Fuqua School of Business. Lodging at the Thomas Center is generously paid for by the conference sponsors. Hotel incidentals (food and beverages not supplied at the conference) will be the responsibility of individual hotel guests. Climate Corps Fellows interested in staying at the Thomas Center should RSVP to Jane Smith by July 30 at jane.smith@duke.edu. Please indicate the name of your preferred roommate, if available, when you RSVP. Limited parking is available for hotel guests. We encourage Climate Corps Fellows to share transportation to and from the conference to the maximum extent possible.

Climate Corps Fellow Travel and Reimbursement Information
The nearest airport to Duke University is Raleigh-Durham International Airport (RDU). Climate Corps alumni traveling by air will be reimbursed by Duke University after the conference, up to $400 travel allowance. To expedite reimbursement, please keep your boarding passes and a copy of your itinerary. Travel to and from the airport is available by taxi, shuttle, public transportation, or rental car. Climate Corps Fellows traveling to Duke University by car will be reimbursed at the standard mileage rate. For those traveling to Duke University by other means (train, bus, etc.), please keep your receipts so that we can reimburse you after the conference. A travel and lodging allowance up to $400 is available for each Climate Corps Fellow. In order to make reimbursement of travel expenses as efficient as possible, please keep all travel-related receipts and submit them to Jane Smith after the conference. Please expect 3-4 weeks after the conference to receive travel reimbursement from Duke University.
